MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

PUBLIC NOTICES

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 8th March 1951

SUBJECT:—Automatic revalidation of import licences issued on or after 1st July 1950 against applications for the period January-June 1950.

No. 41-ITC(P.N.)/51.—In partial modification of Public Notice No. 19-ITC(P.N.)/51, dated the 23rd January 1951, issued by the late Ministry of Commerce, it has been decided that all import licences issued during the period July-December 1950 whether against January-June or July-December 1950 applications and which may expire before 30th June 1951 or which may already have expired will be automatically revalidated to cover shipments made up to 30th June 1951.

2. It will not be necessary to present licences bearing the date of issue 1st July 1950 and thereafter for individual revalidation to the licensing authorities as the Customs and Exchange Control authorities will accept licences issued after 30th June 1950 as valid to cover shipments up to 30th June 1951 notwithstanding that the licences show an earlier date of expiry.

3. Shipments made under licences just revaluated may be affected by 30th June 1951 and no period of grace will be allowed to cover shipments made after that date.

L. K. JHA, Chief Controller of Imports.

New Delhi, the 9th March 1951

SUBJECT:—Licensing of items of machinery and machine tools which are manufactured in India and whose import is not ordinarily considered necessary.

No. 42-ITC(P.N.)/51.—The attention of importers is invited to Appendix ZA to the Public Notice No. 150-ITC(P.N.)/50, dated the 15th December 1950, relating to the licensing principles governing the issue of import licences for the period January-June 1951.

2. It has been decided that the existing Appendix ZA should be substituted by the one enclosed herewith.

APPENDIX 'ZA'

List of items of machinery and machine tools which are manufactured in India and whose import is not ordinarily considered necessary.

Licences for these machinery items will not ordinarily be issued. Licences for machine tools which can be supplanted by the indigenous manufactured machinery will also not ordinarily be issued. Where actual users require any of these items for their own use or where established importers require them against a definite order from an actual user, the question of granting a licence can be considered provided full justification is given and it is proved that the indigenous manufacturers cannot supply the machinery.

SUBJECT:—Licensing of Fluorspar falling under Serial No. 122(ii) of Part V of the Import Trade Control Schedule.

No. 44-ITC(P.N.)/51.—The attention of importers is invited to the entries against Serial No. 122(ii) of Part V of the Import Trade Control Schedule in Appendix 'C' to the late Commerce Ministry Public Notice No. 150-ITC(P.N.)/50, dated the 15th December 1950.

2. As Fluorspar is also classified as chemicals, it has been decided that the present entry in column 3, against the aforesaid serial number shall be substituted by:—

“28.87.”

SUBJECT:—Validity period of licences issued for goods falling under Serial Nos. 17 of Part I and 9 of Part II of the Import Trade Control Schedule.

No. 45-ITC(P.N.)/51.—It has been decided that the validity period of licences for goods falling under Serial Nos. 17 of Part I and 9 of Part II of the Import Trade Control Schedule, should be one year instead of 6 months from the date of issue.

2. Appendix 'Q' to late Commerce Ministry Public Notice No. 150-ITC(P.N.)/50, dated the 15th December 1950, shall be deemed to have been amended accordingly, by the insertion of the aforesaid items in their proper places, therein.

New Delhi, the 12th March 1951

SUBJECT:—Authorities to whom applications should be made.

No. 51-ITC(P.N.)/51.—The attention of importers is invited to para. (d) of Appendix "G" to the late Ministry of Commerce Public Notice No. 150-ITC(P.N.)/50, dated the 15th December 1950, wherein it has been announced that applications for the items falling under Part IV of the Import Trade Control Schedule, not included in the schedule appended to the said Appendix "G" of the above said Public Notice, should be submitted to the Import Trade Controllers at the ports where similar goods were imported by the applicant in the past.

2. In cases, however, where past imports were made by air freight at air-port stations which are not sea-ports, such as New Delhi, Nagpur, etc., applications should be submitted to the Import Trade Controller, Bombay, for all items under Part IV of the Import

Trade Control Schedule, not included in the schedule appended to Appendix "G" to the Public Notice No. 150-ITC(P.N.)/50, dated the 15th December 1950. Applications already made to any other licensing authority will be transferred by him to the Import Trade Controller, Bombay.

SUBJECT:—Grant of additional grace period in case of licences issued for imports from the United Kingdom and Sweden which expired during the period of Dock Strike at United Kingdom and Swedish Ports.

No. 52-ITC(P.N.)/51.—It has been decided that in view of dock strikes occurring in the ports of the United Kingdom and Sweden in February 1951 resulting in shipments being delayed all valid import licences issued for imports from the United Kingdom and Sweden expiring in February 1951, will be deemed to cover shipments made from the United Kingdom Ports or Ports in Sweden at any time upto the 31st March 1951 including the grace period.

2. Necessary instructions have been issued to the Customs Authorities.

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIES AND LABOUR

RESOLUTION

Delhi, the 22nd November 1926

No. A-637.—Under the provisions of the Indian Copyright Act, 1914, copyright in Government publications vests in the Crown, and any reproduction, without consent of a work first published by Government ordinarily constitutes an infringement of copyright. The Government of India consider it desirable that the public should be at liberty to reproduce certain Government publications, and they are pleased to grant general permission to reproduce—

- (a) Any matter of which has appeared in the Gazette of India except,
 - (i) Acts of the Indian Legislature,
 - (ii) Matter not first published by the Government of India;
- (b) Acts of the Indian Legislature, subject to the condition that these are reproduced together with original material, e.g. commentaries;
- (c) Vernacular translations of Acts of the Indian Legislature;
- (d) Reports of any Committee appointed by the Government of India or the Indian Legislature.

2. Permission to reproduce other Government publications will be given in special circumstances. Applications for permission should be forwarded to the Surveyor-General in the case of maps, charts, plans and other documents published by or on behalf of the Survey of India and to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Department of Industries and Labour in all other cases.

3. In the case of works first published by local Governments, application for permission to re-produce such works should be made, in the absence of any special orders passed by the local Governments to the local Government concerned.

A. C. MCWATTERS,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

BINA CHATTERJEE, Under Secy.
